CORONATION OF HAAKON IMPRESSIVELY SIMPLE

More Like a Religious Service

NO POMP OR LUXURY THERE

America's Delegation is Largest by Far---No Disturbances Mar

TRONDHJEM, June 22.—Haakon was crowned King of Norway today, at Trondhjem cathedral.

He is the first ruler Norway has had to itself for nearly six hundred years.

There was no attempt to imitate the picturesque ceremony of the Viking and everything was impressive in its simplicity.

The city was awakened this morning by the firing of salutes on all warships in the harbor. Showers fell during the day. The principal delegations of sightseers were from America. The official delegation from Chicago was headed by Cade, the Norwegian consul at Chicago.

Fifteen hundred Norwegian-Americans were present. Eighty members of European royal houses were present. Sweden sent no delegation. Passive objection was made to the coronation by the republicans and social democrats who favor a republic.

Order was maintained by two thousand soldiers.

The procession to the church was simple, the king and queen and court officials being accompanied by a small escort.

From religious motives Haakon refused to follow the ancient custom of making a tour of the city yafout. The small party drove to the church, a distance of a half mile through packed streets, with an utter absence of pomp or luxury. There were five carriages in the procession.

The envoys drove to the church separately. The bishops of Christiania, Trondhjem and Bergen met at the door and were escorted to the throne during a coronation march especially composed.

The ceremony took place with dignitaries of the church officiating, the bishop of Trondhjem praying at the close for divine blessings upon the monarchs and the people.

The ceremony lasted an hour. The bishop preached a sermon after which the king accompanied by his aides walked to the altar where the bishop of Wexelsen anointed him.

The prayers were similar to the ones when Oscar II was crowned, but the symbols were more simple, the congregation singing part of the service which resembled a religious ceremony rather than a coronation.

Throughout the queen appeared frightened and did not join in the singing as did the king.

Harry Wilhelm and Miss Mary Cullum, both young people of Onalaska were married Wednesday evening in this city at the home of John Cullum, brother of the bride, by Rev. Vik. John Cullum and Miss Ella Lee, a friend of the bride, were the attendants.

HOFFER CASE TO BE ARGUED AGAIN

The supreme court at Madison yesterday granted a reargument in the case of Rev. Father James Hoffer, convicted of a statutory offence, upon complaint of Miss Bertha Taylor of St. Joseph ridge. The case is set for the first Tuesday in the January term here. District Attorney Bossard and a state attorney will represent the state and Doherty and Baldwin the priest. The case is that in which the priest was accused of giving Miss Taylor powders which made her sleep, when she came to his house for instruction.

HE DIRTIED UP HER WASHING

August Muetzel, janitor of the Fifteenth ward school, was in police court today charged with a vulgar performance the incentive to which is alleged to have been malice.

Robert Bartschenfeld, proprietor of the German Village, is the complainant. Muetzel retained Higbee & Higbee to defend him, and Judge Hunt set July 13 as the date of trial. Bartschenfeld resides at 612 Avon street, and Muetzel is his next door neighbor. The allegation is that Muetzel deliberately shoved manure from the stables upon the linen in his neighbor's wash, which was hanging upon a clothes line in the back yard. Bartschenfeld says his wife and daughter witnessed the deed. Muetzel indignantly denies the charge.

Mrs. T. W. Melaven and sister, Bessie Gutthrock, of Harper's Ferry, have returned home after visiting in this city.

- A large shipment went from the Langdon & Boyd plant yesterday, by express, to Chicago.
- Other orders have been filled, and the demand is said to be growing.

CHEF ON TRAIN RUNS AMUCK

The passengers and crew on the Milwaukee train which arrived at Redwing shortly after 10 o'clock had an exciting time. William Doage, the colored chef in the dining car, it is alleged, suddenly began raving and it took the entire train crew and a number of passengers to keep him in subjection until the Red Wing police, who had been telegraphed to meet the train, landed the offender in jail.

Back and forth through the aisles, it is said, the battle went on, and Doage, with almost superhuman strength, battled single-handed against the conductor, brakemen and volunteers who joined with the rail-

Wanted all Aldermen Told

RAILWAY GETS FRANCHISE

And Some Aldermen Think Sending Desired Cards "Imposition" on Clerk

The city council last night granted to the La Crosse City Railway company a franchise permitting certain extensions, which was in the main satisfactory to the aldermen, though it did not quite fill the bill with the north side representation, who wanted a larger loop on the north side than that provided for in the franchise.

There was marked objection by Alderman Valentine to "railroading" important measures through the council, supported by Aldermen Jojade and Grover, but a resolution by Valentine, providing for the notification of the entire council when important matters are to be considered in committee, was lost.

Alderman Valentine pointed out that in matters of so much importance as the granting of special privileges to public service corporations, it was no more than the right for the aldermen to be notified of such committee meetings as considered the matters, that they might express their views and know all possible about the measures before being called upon the vote.

Alderman Harry Hirschheimer, however, believed that it would be an imposition upon and would overwork the city clerk to pass a measure requiring him to send out notices to all of the twenty-one aldermen. As the work is done by a clerk in the office, and the calls are upon stereotyped cards, this point, however, seemed poorly taken. It was, nevertheless, about the only valid objection raised to the motion of Alderman Valentine.

However, all of the aldermen excepting four, agreed to Mr. Hirschheimer's objection, believing that the aldermen not belonging to the committee had no right to be notified of what was going on in committee meetings, voted to kill the motion.

The franchise, as passed finally without dissent, granted the railway company right to extend its lines on Main street to Losey boulevard, on Market street to the Catholic cemetery, on the Mormon coulee road to Fremont street, and to construct a loop at the upper end of George street to Livingston street, thence east to Loomis street, thence south on Loomis street to Sill street, thence west on Sill street connecting with the main line of the company.

Alderman Jojade objected, contending that the north side loop should have run two blocks further north.

The franchise as passed, it is announced, will be accepted by the railway officials. Its presentation at the adjourned meeting last night was a surprise to most members of the council.

What It Grants.

The new franchise gives the railway company exclusive right to construct, maintain and operate a double or single track from Sixteenth and Main streets east on Main to and across Losey boulevard and further on Market street from the easterly end of its Market street line at Sixteenth and Market streets to and across Losey boulevard and from the southern terminus of the line on the Mormon coulee road, southerly to Fremont street.

Chief of Police Byrne proposes to enforce the law and to make the coming Fourth of July a "sane" one, though noise will not be objected to if made by implements within the sanction of the law.

La Crosse yesterday wallowed through mud puddles, were soaked to the skin and withstood divers discomforts in their successful effort to take the delayed opening game from Green Bay. For two days the weather prevented a game and yesterday's exhibition was pulled off amidst great difficulty.

Owing to the wet grounds, frequent showers and the pitchers' inability to handle the wet ball both teams scored an unusual number of hits and pounded the ball all over the diamond.

Tomorrow Wausau opens in this city for a four game series and Green Bay goes to Freeport.

Yesterday afternoon general dissatisfaction was created by the refusal of the gatekeeper to accept rainchecks and a carload of fans returned to the city without seeing the game, swearing vengeance.

The order against rainchecks given out under five innings has been revoked, and hereafter it will be necessary to play five innings before the spectators will be credited with having their money's worth.

Yesterday's score by innings:

Green Bay 1 0 0 0 1 0 3 0—5 12 4

Freeport 4, Wausau 3.

FREEPORT, Ill., June 22.—It required ten innings to finish the game here yesterday, partly through a questionable decision of Umpire Boland. The contest was hard fought all through, Warhop striking out six men. Score:

Escapes Death by Football Trick

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—"My knowledge of football methods is all that saved me from injury, possibly death," said President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University yesterday in speaking of his experience in a collision of two Santa Fe passenger trains near Corona yesterday. Dr. Jordan was standing in the aisle, fell on his shoulder and rolled over in the best gridiron style. He was able to arise and assist several of the injured in his car.

McClure Stars Buy American

NEW YORK, June 22.—John S. Phillips, who recently withdrew from partnership with S. S. McClure as publisher of McClure's Magazine, today completed practical details of the purchase from Ellery Sedgwick of the American Magazine, formerly Frank Leslie's Monthly. He will take it over on July 1.

When Mr. Phillips withdrew from McClure's there went with him Ida M. (Tarbell), Lincoln Steffens, Ray Stannard Baker, Mr. Boyden, the managing editor, and others. There Mr. McClure wanted his writers to undertake work which they felt was not what they wanted to do, so they went with Mr. Phillips, and will go with him to the magazine he has purchased.

Mr. Sedgwick, the former owner, retains no interest, and it is probable that the name of the magazine will be changed.

KRICK-MANN.

William Krick, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Krick of Hokah, and Miss Emma Mann, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Mann of Union, were married at Hokah at the home of the bride's parents.

The married couple will reside in this city where the groom is employed.

THEY LAUGHED.

At the Arguments on the Packages.

The husband of an Ohio woman brought home some packages of Grape-Nuts one evening and there was much discussion, but let her tell the story.

"Two years ago I was thin and sickly and suffered so from indigestion, was very nervous, and could not sleep a night. I was not able physically or mentally to perform my duties and was constantly under the plain living and all the different remedies recommended by friends but got no better.

"One day my husband brought home two yellow boxes and said, 'The grocer wants to try this food and report how we like it, he thinks it will help you.' I read all it said on the boxes about Grape-Nuts and I remember how I laughed at it, for I thought it foolish to think food could help me. But the next meal we all ate some with cream. We liked and enjoyed the deliciously crisp and new flavor so we kept on using Grape-Nuts, not because we thought it would cure me but because we liked it.

"At that time we had no idea what the results would be but now I am anxious to have the world know that today I am a well and strong woman physically and mentally. I gained over 30 pounds, do not suffer from any of the old ails and I know that it is to Grape-Nuts alone that I owe my restored health. They call me 'Grape-Nuts' here in the home and all of my friends have asked me the cause of it all. I have persuaded several of them to use Grape-Nuts and everyone of them who has done so has been benefited and I wish it were in my power to induce everyone who is sick to give this wonderful food a trial. We still have Grape-Nuts three times a day and never tire of it." Name given by Postum Co. Battle Creek, Mich.

Ten days on this nourishing and completely digestible food will show anyone who is run down from improper feeding a great change, sometimes worth more than a gold mine because it may mean the joy and spring of perfect health in place of the old ails. Trial proves. "There's a reason."

PLEASANT SURPRISE

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Agnes Knight at her home 2132 Wood street, Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her birthday.

Supper was served and the afternoon was spent in a sociable way. She was the recipient of many pretty gifts. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses, carnations and ferns. The solo, "Ill Desidero," was rendered by Miss Ragna Jensen, accompanied by Miss Minnie Knight at the piano. Those present were: Mesdames Wm. Boyle, J. U. Scharr, E. Reid, J. D. Jensen, Misses Ragna Jensen, Mollie Boyle, Minnie Knight, Ellen Scharr and Miss Lulu Buttler of Chippewa Falls, Messrs. Joseph Bergh, George Jensen, Merrill Scharr and Thomas Knight.

GREEN BAY HAS SOME- THING UP ITS SLEEVE

The Green Bay line is building a siding into Paddy's Rest on Black river to get gravel for ballasting purposes. They expect to have the team shovel at work in the pit by July 1st. We understand that the Green Bay line is unloading some 80lb steel rails at Hatfield but do not know which way they are to be laid.—Merillan Leader.

JOURNAL THINKS WELL OF MR. ESCH

Nomination papers are being circulated for Congressman Esch. They are being very numerous signed, so much so that many more names than required could be easily obtained. Mr. Esch has made an excellent record in the past eight years. Every time he has been heard from it has been in connection with some good, honest measure of importance to the people. He is deprived of no little credit that should have been given to him for his work on the railway rate bill by the selfishness of an Iowa congressman but Wisconsin people recognize the value of his services on that important measure. Mr. Esch will be unanimously renominated and almost unanimously re-elected.—Black River Falls Journal.

OFFERS RAILWAY A FORTUNE TO LEAVE HIS PROPERTY

KENOSHA, Wis., June 22.—In order that the Chicago and Milwaukee railway shall not interfere with his plans to build a model factory in Kenosha, Thomas B. Jeffery has offered to pay $50,000 if the company will change its route so that the line will not pass through the Jeffery property. Recently a commission awarded Jeffery a similar amount as damages, but he has announced that he would much prefer to pay the railway company and have the road take some other route.

BLATZ BEER MILWAUKEE

Quality—Individuality—Purity—

The Quality of the Malt decides the body of a beer. Blatz Malt is produced in the brewery's own malt house by trained Malsters (years in Blatz service). "Not only how much malt—but how good" is here the inviolable rule. This method is expensive, but the desired result is always achieved—the vital ingredients of the malt are thereby brought out and retained. To the Blatz malt is due the prevailing full-bodied state of Blatz Beer.

The Hops used in the brewing of Blatz Beer are rich in aromatic properties and tonics (hopbitters), which lend to the beer that fragrance which captivates lovers of the beverage. The tonics act as a mild stimulant to the digestion. Blatz Beer is perfectly fermented and ripened in the coldest and cleanest cellars extant.

The most skilled masters zealously guard "Blatz" individuality. The paramount object being to maintain with absolute uniformity every characteristic that has these many years meant Blatz Quality.

RUSSIA AND A COMING DOOM.

News of further atrocities committed in Russia, and the suggestion that a reign of terror similar to the French Revolution is at hand in that unhappy land, come together so naturally neither surprise nor great regret accompanies the discussion.

Russia must have a housecleaning. As it must come, the sooner it does come the better. A nation that permits the torturing of babes and the slaughter of citizens must one day reap the crop it has been so long sowing. It will be a ripe, red crop.

It seems strange indeed that the Russian royalty reads no lesson in history, sees no warning handwriting on the wall. Existing under conditions that invite and have always resulted in disaster, a world wide text book on proper remedies before them, the nobility tramps with heedless heel upon victims tottering on the brink of the precipice.

There may as well be a revelation. It is fitting that the common people of Russia find their own destiny, as other peoples have been obliged to do. However, it seems that civilization cannot much longer stand the nervous strain to which the horrible affairs of Russia are putting it. The United States found a legitimate excuse to free Cuba from the tyranny of Spain. There will come some plausible reason for the powers interfering in Russia. The cry of tortured humanity cannot come from the troubled land much longer without eliciting a reply.

RAIN CHECKS AND REASON.

A whole lot of people yesterday displayed a whole lot of displeasure over the fact that they were refused admittance to the baseball park on rain checks after having witnessed four innings of a postponed game the day before.

Replying to this, President Elliott said through the columns of The Tribune that under the rules of the National Baseball Association rain checks are not honored in any case where as much as three innings, have been played, making the checks good until the conclusion of the fourth inning, but not thereafter.

In reply to this the interested persons who were excluded from the grounds say that they paid to see a game, and that so long as anything less than five completed innings is not recorded as a game, rain checks should be good up to the close of the fifth inning.

It is a fact that patrons of the park who paid to see a game of ball are apparently entitled to do so, and the inning limit constituting a game and barring rain checks should be the same. However, these things are governed by arbitrary rules, and it appears La Crosse fans have one inning the better of it over their Chicago friends. We believe to be just, the rule should make rain checks good until five innings have been played and a contest decided. But if that is not the rule, it is an error made by the National Association, and cannot be charged to the account of the local managers. It seems, however, that having compromised with the precedent established by the big leagues, it might be a wise thing for the local officials to show a liberal spirit by making it full five innings and a square deal.

ROLLIE THROWS A FIT.

In a fine frenzy over some delightfully entertaining comment relative to the progress of The Tribune, and the frenzied finance operations of certain of his former fellow citizens, of whom Rollie Gelatt is a conspicuous example, written The Tribune by Grant E. Reynolds, formerly president of the La Crosse board of trade and the active figure in a local mercantile institution during its days of prosperity before its career had rendered it subject to dissolution under the clause in a certain will in which it was a bequest, which clause provided that in case the profits fell below a certain point the business was to be discontinued—in an excited outburst of impotent wrath over the aforementioned letter Mr. Gelatt expresses the opinion that Mr. Reynolds is an inconsequential person whom the popular and dignified Charley Felber entwined with a strangle-hold on the seat of his trousers, heaving him from the gang plank and tumbling him with a sopping splash into the water that the friends to whom Charley had bartered the common stock he swore on the witness stand was "worth 10 cents, and ruled from 30 to 40 cents and he sold to HIS FRIENDS for 50 cents, had wrung from that much watered and doubly damned drug on the market. It was really the finest piece of temper the editor of The Morning Laughing Stock and publisher of the Evening Common Stock has exhibited. You see, Mr. Reynolds was ONE of the men to whom Mr. Gelatt said he had an offer of $100,000.00 for the Central plant a very short while before he leased it in such a manner as to secure about half that sum to the stockholders; and Mr. Reynolds was one of the men who dared to tell Mr. Gelatt that the conduct of a certain smooth gentleman known to both of them had been crooked in the extreme. To say "Reynolds" to Mr. Gelatt is like shaking a red rag at a bull—not a blue-blooded Herford bull, but just common stock.

JUST LIFE

As to the Umbrella.

(Dodge Co. (Minn.) Republican).
During a heavy fall of rain a friend of mine carrying a very wet umbrella entered a hotel to pay a call to some one up stairs. After placing his umbrella where it might drip he wrote upon a piece of paper and pinned to the umbrella:

"N. B.—This umbrella belongs to a man who strikes a 250 pound blow. Back in fifteen minutes.

He went upstairs and after an absence of fifteen minutes returned to find his umbrella gone and in its place a note reading:

"P. S.—Umbrella taken by a man who walks ten miles an hour—won't be back at all."

AT THE THEATRES

Stories have been told and stories sung about every and all class of people with the exception of one, the cowboy. No cowboy songs, no stories of the cowboy's sweetheart. All any one ever seemed to have to say about the cowboy was that he came into town every so often, got drunk and shot holes in the ceiling. But the halt has been called, and the Bijou this week in offering a story in the latest moving pictures that shows the cowboy as he is, big hearted, rough-to-be expected—but a heart full of love for his sweetheart and the respect for the weaker sex that we find so profoundly distinct in the true western man. As the story opens the cowboy handles very roughly a Mexican, better known as a Greaser, for giving liquor to an Indian whose squaw is trying to make him be good. Later, the scene shifts to the relay station for the stage coach and the cowboy's sweetheart arrives for a few hours' rest on her way west. When dinner is over the cowboy entertains the travelers. After they depart the Greaser takes his band and starts in pursuit, his object being to get the cowboy's loved one. After a chase pictured as beautifully as is possible to be, he gets her and starts for his camp with the cowboy's sweetheart his prisoner. The wounded driver of the coach returns to the relay station, informs the cowboys who start after them. The chase scene in this part is the best ever shown. After the cowboy has rescued his sweetheart, the Greaser makes another attempt to kill him, but the cowboy is saved by the little Indian girl whom he once befriended. This is a wonderful picture. Don't fail to see it.

NORTH SIDE

Work on the New Soderberg store at the corner of George and Gillette streets is progressing rapidly. It is understood that a small department store will be operated there.

The Rev. W. J. Turner of the North Presbyterian church will leave next Wednesday for Three Lakes, Oneida county, where he will spend his annual two months' vacation. His family will accompany him and he will make his home in a cabin which has been erected for him for this summer's use. Arrangements for it were perfected when he was there last summer. Other ministers will take his place at the church during the month of July.

Henry Conway Cook of 1032 Berlin street is said to be missing. It is thought, however, that he may have gone on a visit as he was always of a quiet disposition and the idea that he has run away is discredited.

The funeral services over the remains of Ben Bolstad took place this afternoon from the Charles street Lutheran church, Rev. Vik officiating and Sletten in charge.

Plates for the banquet which will be given by the Alumni association of the La Crosse high school are going fast at the Sletten store on Caledonia street.

A large number from the north side will attend the Junior prom. at the Germania hall this evening. The chorus which will assist at the exercises is expected to be better than ever. It has been under the direction of Miss Barbara Russell.

The scholars of the Sixth district school of West La Crosse enjoyed themselves at a picnic today.

A number of the north side teachers are leaving for their homes to spend their vacations.

Mrs. Gunda Johnson of Mill street is ill.

Mrs. Lars Olson of 1400 Rose street is ill.

Sjonquist and Jones made another large catch of fish last evening.

Miss Edna Wittenberg of 625 Berlin street has gone to Winnipeg, Man., to spend the summer.

Miss Edith Schaefer who has been the guest of her mother for the past three weeks has returned to her home at Winnipeg, Man.

Miss Florence Woods, formerly a teacher on the north side who has recently completed her course of study at the University at Madison, is visiting friends on the north side.

Mrs. Geo. W. Pierce of George street has gone to Prairie du Chien to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. L. B. Hampton.

Mrs. Buchholz of Kane street has gone to Houston, Minn., to spend a few days with her daughter, Miss Mary.
